STAR 102.7 SPONSORS AVRIL LAVIGNE AT NINA'S NIGHT OUT

- Station Joins with News 3 Anchor Nina Radetich and The Pearl at Palms Casino Resort for Fourth Annual Fundraiser for Southern Nevada's Rape Crisis Center -

WHO: Multi-platinum recording artist Avril Lavigne, Star 102.7 80s 90s NOW KSTJ-FM, a Beasley Broadcast Group radio station, KVBC News 3 anchor Nina Radetich, and The Pearl at the Palms Casino Resort, with all proceeds to benefit The Rape Crisis Center, Southern Nevada's only nonprofit advocacy organization for sexual assault victims.

WHAT: The fourth annual Nina's Night Out, featuring Avril Lavigne performing songs from her newest album release, The Best Damn Thing. Event host Nina Radetich, who serves on the board of The Rape Crisis Center, says, "Nina's Night Out is a night to celebrate the survivors and a way to raise money for an organization that does the work few are willing to do." The event has previously raised more than $250,000 for The Rape Crisis Center. Rape Crisis Center Executive Director Louise Torres says, "Nina's Night Out has raised much needed awareness for our organization. We are enormously grateful for the support the community gives to this event."

WHERE: The Pearl at the Palms Casino Resort, Las Vegas' premier concert theater. A private, VIP sponsors-only reception with Avril Lavigne at the Ghostbar precedes the concert.

WHEN: Thursday, June 7 at 8 p.m.

Concert ticket prices range from $50 to $115, plus applicable box office fees, and can be purchased through Ticketmaster online at www.ticketmaster.com or by phone at 702.474.4000, or through The Pearl Box Office, open daily from noon to 7 p.m. Integrity Chrysler has donated a 2007 Chrysler 300 that will be raffled off at the concert, with raffle tickets now available at The Rape Crisis Center.
